

ART & MUSIC AT BROOKLETTS PLACE

July – December 2015

July 21, 2015 (12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.) Chuck Fisher returns to Brookletts Place and will perform classic and modern country as well as songs of your high school days by Bobby Vinton, Paul Anka, Marty Robbins and the Platters, to name a few. Chuck has performed at numerous venues to include the Texas Troubadour Theatre, Nashville, TN; The Gaylord Hotel, National Harbor and locally at the American Legion in Cambridge and Moose Lodge, Salisbury.

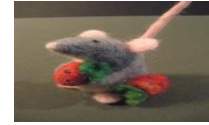

September 11, 2015 (6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.) Put on your dancing shoes, Sterling Dorn & The Too Smooth Dudes will perform an array of American Jazz Standards. Sterling Dorn has spread much joy to many seniors throughout Maryland. "The Too Smooth Dudes" is a well seasoned, first class jazz trio that has performed for many years throughout the Baltimore, Washington and Annapolis area. Jim Hession tickles the ivories, while Milt Duvall plucks the bass, and Jimmy Bryant's drum duties keeps the trio humming.

October 1, 2015 (12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.) The Jones Boys return to serenade us with current and traditional country music. Jim Jones and his son Darren are part of a group that has been singing together since 1992. They have appeared in Nashville, have opened for Hank Williams, III and at numerous local events to include fairs, local clubs, nursing homes and senior centers.

October 20 & November 17 (9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.)

Needle Felting Class - Laura Rankin began her career in 1989 illustrating and writing children's books. Although this is her main career, she discovered needle felting in 2009 when she moved from Maine to Easton to care for her father. She quotes "This medium is a perfect extension and complement to my work illustrating children's books." Students in her class will explore the world of 2 & 3 dimensional sculpting with gorgeous wools. They will learn the basics of the craft; how to form a solid, felted ball, how to make a cylinder (or "sausage"), as well as a cone form and how to use templates for making infinite shapes. During the 3 hour workshop students will create a 3D holiday-themed character, a 2 dimensional ornament and an acorn capped ornament. Materials will be supplied and students will leave with their own felting needle, felting pad, wool samples and techniques, plus other useful information. Each class will be limited to 12 students

November 12, 2015 (12:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.) David DeBoy & the

Hons will bring their crazy carnival of Christmas Carols back to Brookletts Place. The show will incorporate audience participation, surprises and fun for all ages as they perform hits from his two best selling CD's, "Crabs for Christmas for 20 Years" and "Crabs for Christmas Live!" Their songs and comedy routines are wild, hilarious, touching and full of fun.

November 19 & 20, 2015 (12:30 p.m. 2:30 p.m. and 9:30 a.m. – 11:30 p.m.) Collage Jewelry Class -with Sue Stockman- Students will create a pin, using found objects, in a collage format. You will be encouraged to incorporate personal pieces that may hold significant meaning or memories. The items will be connected with wire and various techniques that will be covered, including some simple forging and flattening of non-ferrous metals. Sue is a celebrated artist who encourages personal creativity and growth. This class is limited to 12 students

These programs are funded in part by a grant from the Talbot County Arts Council, with revenues provided by the Maryland State Arts Council, Talbot County and the Towns of Easton and Oxford and The American Legion Blake-Blackston Post #77.
